Re: Kochie vs. The Quigley Corporation, et al., CV-05-3622 (JG)(KAM)

Dear Judge Gleeson:

This firm represents the plaintiff in the above-referenced action and we write to respectfully request a brief extension of time for plaintiff to submit opposition papers to Defendants' motion to dismiss.

As the Court may recall, at a pre-motion conference was held in this case on April 17, 2006. At that time the Court ruled that the parties were permitted to file motions, if necessary, and if motion practice was to be had, the Court indicated the schedule would be as follows: motions to be filed by April 24th, opposition to be filed by May 1st, Reply, by May 8th, and argument on May 19th, at 12:00 p.m.

Defendants elected to file their motion.

To this end, plaintiff respectfully requests an extension of time to serve his opposition for at least 7 days (from May 1st until May 8th).

This would merely extend the time to file opposition from 7 days to fourteen days and should result in no prejudice. In addition, your undersigned has other commitments that will greatly hinder submitting opposition papers by May 1st, which is just one week after they were filed.¹

Accordingly, plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant plaintiff at least 7 days, until May 8, 2006, to file and serve his opposition papers.

I thank the Court for its time and continued courtesies.

Respectfully,

Michael A. London

¹ Defendants' motion was filed via ECF on Monday April 24th in accordance with the Court's directive, and we received a copy of it through Pacer via ECF, however, the motion was served via regular mail, and received by our office today.
